ROYAL VICTORIA DOCKS

THE CRYSTAL, CRYSTAL GARDENS

Royal Victoria Docks, London, E16 1GB

This area is where many visitors first experience the Royal Docks, arriving via cable car or DLR and is a key thoroughfare for locals and workers. Collectively known as Crystal Gardens, the spaces around the innovative Crystal Building offer an unparalleled opportunity for outdoor programming including two green spaces; Crystal Lawns (in front), the Garden (to the side), as well as a deck and water access via a slipway into Royal Docks.

This 3.8km promenade on the North side of the docks, stretches from the Crystal at the far west past the Good Hotel, the ExCel centre, Compressor House, Newham Council offices and the University of East London. It leads all the way to the Sir Steven Redgrave Bridge at the east end of Royal Albert Dock.

The walkway is a huge opportunity to animate the whole length of the dockside. Reopening in June 2019, it has been closed in sections due to construction for several years. The flat waterside route offers opportunities for activities such as walks, cycling and scootering with great views of the dock edge, City Airport and Millenium Mills. Please note that the installation of structures isn't possible along this route due to weight loadings.
